Subject: [Faccfr] Sarah Reichard's appointment

Dear All:

I am writing to announce that Sarah Reichard will take over the duties of director of the University of Washington Botanic Gardens through June 30, 2011. Sandra Lier will assist Dr. Reichard and Associate Director Fred Hoyt as well as compiling a document that will detail the UWBG director's job duties which she has so ably managed since March of 2008.

Between now and June 30, I will work with the various stakeholders to insure continuity into the future.

Thank you and a special thanks to Sandra Lier who has and continues to serve the University and UWBG extraordinarily well.

Tom
