

Wildlife Sciences Group
ESRM 455 and CFR 554
Winter Quarter 2012
Professor Ken Raedeke (kraedeke@raedeke.com)

School of Environmental and Forest Sciences

UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

College of the Environment

Wildlife Science Seminar
Public Welcome

- January 9 Feathers: Evolution of a natural miracle. Thor Hanson, conservation biologist and author
- January 16 Martin Luther King, Jr. Holiday
- January 23 Why Cougars Matter: An ecological and cultural perspective. Sharon Negri, Co-Director, Grizzly Bear Outreach Project, Bainbridge Island, WA
- January 30 Community-based Natural Resource Management in Support of Biodiversity Conservation: Case studies in Africa and Mongolia. Goetz Schuerholz, Adjunct Associate Professor, University of Victoria, BC
- February 6 Mapping Landscape Integrity Connectivity: Connecting the best of what's left. John Pierce, Chief Wildlife Scientist, WA Department of Fish and Wildlife, Olympia, WA
- February 13 Status and Management of Wolves in Washington State. Harriet Allen, Threatened and Endangered Species Program Manager, WA Department of Fish and Wildlife, Olympia, WA
- February 20 President's Day Holiday
- February 27 Assembly Rules for Urbanizing Lands? Avian community structure following forest clearing and subsequent residential development. Jack DeLap, UW School of Environmental and Forest Sciences
- March 5 Are the Effects of Primary Productivity on Songbird Populations Altered in an Urbanizing Landscape? Ben Shryock, UW School of Environmental and Forest Sciences

This seminar meets from 3:30 to 4:50 PM in Paccar Hall 192; undergraduates may register for credit under ESRM 455 and graduate students under CFR 554. The public is welcome.